The Senior Class Presents Plays

The senior class under the direction of Mrs. Joe Clark presented two one-act plays in the Elementary School auditorium on Tuesday evening, March 30th. The large audience of students and friends were delightfully entertained by the members of the class who, as participants in the play and in the preparation for its giving, manifested a genuine ability to interpret the roles in which they were cast.

The first play was a comedy in one act, "Ma's Teapot", and the cast of characters was as follows:

Pa Brown, Joe Barkley
Ma Brown, Carol Andrews
Jimmy McNabe, an orphan, Ennis Blackburn
Cynthia, whom Jimmy loves, Shirley Thomas

The second one-act play was entitled, "The Shawl" and the cast of character for this play was as follows:

Anton Kola, a factory worker, Calvin Burleson
Marie, his young wife, Elizabeth Huddleston
Jerry Monahan, a rich young man, Archie McMannen
Mr. Boardman, the head of the factory, Everett Vest
Mrs. Boardman, his wife, Shirley Byrd

Other members of the class assisted in the planning and presentation of the plays and filled the following places:

Property Manager, Margaret Hopkins
Stage Managers, David Morrison and Neil Shaw
Typists, Barbara Bradshaw, Louise Bradshaw, Elizabeth Woodall
Assistant Director, Louise Bradshaw
Ushers, Jacqueline Kuykendall, Barbara Bradshaw, Betty Andrews, Bobby McMannen.

Awards Made At Basketball Banquet

The annual basketball banquet was a gala affair attended by approximately 200 people. A delicious meal of home-grown beefsteak, topped off by cherry pie and ice cream, afforded wonderful refreshment for the body, and the program for entertainment was highlighted by the singing of J. D. Morrison of Statesville.

Miss Catherine Edgerton, director of the Glee Club, and Miss Eleanor Miller of the school faculty, delightfully entertained the group with a musical skit. Professor William A. Hethcox, toastmaster of the evening, then presented Mrs. Melba McLuen who awarded certificates to the junior girls for their year's participation. Dean Upton, freshman at Gardner-Webb and a Barium graduate of last year, made the awards to the boys of the junior team. The varsity awards for the boys and girls were made by Coach A. M. Calhoun who commended the boys for their work and paid special tribute to the girls who lost only two games in the regular season, winding up in first place in the northern half of the conference standings. In the tournament they won the South Piedmont Conference and were finalists with Lincolnton for the Western North Carolina Athletic Activities crown. It was noted that next year's prospects for basketball are particularly good at Barium Springs since graduation will not cut too heavily into the squad and the rising junior teams afford good recruits for the next year's squads.

Those receiving certificates for their junior accomplishments were:

Ramona Blake, Gay Church, Grace Faulk, Nancy Ferrell, Becky Hamrick, Martha Hill, Barbara Johnson, Deanna Kiser, Bernice Kuykendall, Nancy Kyles, Aileen Merritt, Addie McEwen, Shelby McEwen, Ann McLean, Elaine Pursley, Peggy Sellers, Janet Woodall.

LeNair Burns, Bobby Frye, Ronnie Hudgins, Mac McClure, Sidney Morrison, Walter Plyler, Lawton Rice, Ray Smith, Charles Ward, James Woodall.

Those awarded varsity letters for competition were:

Edna Baucom, Annie Leigh Frazier, Margaret Hopkins, Jacqueline Kuykendall, Barbara McCall, Lena McLean, Shirley Plyler, Deores Ramsey.

Ennis Blackburn, Calvin Burleson, Mirton Cox, Archie McMannen, David Morrison, Boyce Dean Smith, Frankie Smith, Everett Vest.

A Senior Looks Back

By LOUISE BRADSHAW

Four miles south of Statesville and about forty miles north of Charlotte is a small village known as Barium Springs, a home for children. In 1940 this became the home of three little Bradshaw girls, I being the youngest.

We arrived on the Barium campus late one September afternoon when the trees were in their full Autumn glory. I was soon taken to the Baby Cottage to live and stayed here for my first three years playing in the woods, attending kindergarten, and at last starting to school.

As I grew older I moved to

Would you like to have a part in sending young people to conference this summer? For fifteen dollars a member of the Senior High Fellowship can attend the Young People's Conference and be trained in religious living while he is enjoying the fellowship of the young people from other churches. For the same amount a Pioneer can have a week of wonderful experiences at the Pioneer Camp under the direction of Christian leaders.

COTTAGE NEWS

Annie Louise

Here we are again bringing our cottage news to you. We thought we would write our news early because they always say "the early bird gets the worm."

We can hardly wait for Easter to come so we can have some Easter egg hunts and really have a good time, but we have a good time all the time .

We attended the Senior Class Play and really had a good time trying to figure out who the characters really were.

Although we were late attending the Senior Voice and Piano recital we enjoyed it also.

We are counting the days till the school bell will ring and everyone will say school's out.

Our tiny little flower garden is just beginning to give us a colorful parade and all the rain is trying to drown it and of course as long as there is rain there will be blue Monday.

We have finally begun to skate again and we can not figure whether it feels best to stand up or fall down.

—Annie Louise Girls

Infirmary

Everyone at Barium is geting spring fever lately since old Mother Nature is showing her handwork. April showers have arrived and May flowers too.

Last month we had the March birthday table and although not too many were present, the table was well cleaned. Also in March the seniors gave their musical recital and two plays which were enjoyed by everyone.

April and May seem to be two of our busiest months, for in these we have our banquet, recital, play and graduation. Also in May we four Infirmary girls will be moving back to the Womans Building since we shall be seniors although it doesn't seem true.

Since Mr. Sides' departure we have been fortunate enough to have Dr. W. G. Workman from Davidson as our minister until we can get a regular one. We all enjoy him although we do miss Mr. Sides.

It doesn't seem real that in a few weeks school will be out for this year has certainly zoomed by. I know we are going to miss the seniors but we are happy for them despite this fact.

Our Glee Club had a delightful trip to St. Paul's Presbyterian Church in Charlotte April 4. All the church members made us feel right at home and invited us into their homes for a delicious dinner. That night our Senior High Fellowship attended the Rally in Concord.

Everyone must be in good physical condition here for we have not had many patients in the last few weeks. Not having many patients gives us extra time for our studies and music.

Along with spring comes baseball and softball and Barium is one which keeps in step with spring. We are expecting some good games.

Womans Building

The Betas had a party Friday night. They had supper in Statesville and then went to a movie in Davidson. Now, they are happily looking forward to a week-end in Asheville at the State Beta Convention.

We got a new refrigator and are we proud of it. The freezing unit is large enough to furnish ice for all the girls.

About forty-five members of the Senior High Fellowship attended the Spring Rally at the First Presybyterian Church in Concord.

Last Sunday the Glee Club sang at the morning worship service at the St. Paul's Presbyterian Church in Charlotte. Afterwards we were fed and entertained by the members of the congregation. Everyone was so nice and friendly, we would like to invite them to visit us on our campus.

Martha Evans

Quads

Once again it is Spring and on the softball diamond, Ennis (The Whip) Blackburn goes into his windup, then there the pitch, hard and fast it goes until there is a swing- a yell, the mighty Joe Barkley has struck out. For two weeks now we have been enjoying a good softball game among ourselves every Friday afternoon. I am not sure just who will claim the championship title in the end, but I do know that every one is in there doing his best.

You know there is one season in the year when I am extra proud of my home here at Barium. That is the season of Spring. The grass again takes on its green color and the trees get back their leaves. The apple trees from a distant looks as if they are covered with snow, however the delightful aroma in the air assures us differently.

We had twelve boys on the honor roll this month, these twelve will be treated to a movie, by Mrs. Ramsay and Miss Pope.

With Easter only a few days away now we are looking forward to showing off our new clothes and also going to a special Easter program presented by the members of the Senior High Fellowship.

With graduation only five weeks away the seniors are begining to think more and more about what they will do when they depart from us. We wish them all the luck in the world in whatever they attempt to do.

A Student Looks Back

Annie Lousie Cottage and enjoyed playing in the small play house that stands in the yard, and learning how to clean house.

When I was ten years old I moved to Howard Cottage and learned how to string beans. It was a hard job, but with the singing and story telling we did, we soon found it didn't take very long to string eight crates of beans at a time.

Each year some of the older girls are chosen to work in the building with the younger children and it was my privilege when I was in the seventh and eighth grades to work at the Baby Cottage. During these two years I learned how to take much responsibility.

My freshman year was spent at the Woman's Building, a cottage for older girls, I had several different jobs, such as working in the laundry, kitchen, or helping clean the building in which I lived.

When the Spring of 1951 rolled around I was again chosen to work with the younger children. This time it was at Synods cottage, a building for twenty-four little boys from six to ten. In my work I cleaned part of the building, helped bathe the boys, and entertained them. The latter I found most enjoyable.

Last summer I moved back to the Woman's Building and at present my job is to see that the dishes are stacked properly in the dish hall after each meal, and to see that they are washed well. During the school months, though, we have colored help to wash them. The girls of eleven and twelve years of age do the dishwashing, but it doesn't take them but about 30 minutes since we have an automatic dishwasher.

Some of the seniors do substitute housemother' work at the cottages for smaller children, so each Tuesday I find myself at Synods cottage with the 24 little boys. From their nickname "the wigglers" you can tell pretty much what they are like. They are a lot of fun to work with and I always look forward to my Tuesday's with the Synods Boys.

My life at Barium has been full of many happy experiences such as learning to skate, playing basketball, swimming in the summer, helping with the Junior and Senior banquet, taking part in our give-to Christmas tree each year, and other Christmas activities, but there is one experience I shall never forget . When I was in the eighth grade our English teacher who is also our librarian, told us about a new book that had just been published, "Room For One More." She also read us parts of it. Many of you are probably familiar with the book and know that it is about orphan children adopted. I thought it would be an inovation for some of us to write to the author, Anna Perrott Rose and tell her how much we enjoyed her book. Having no idea that I would hear from her, I sat down and wrote her a letter. About three weeks after I had written to her I received a letter in the mail with no return address on it, and a hand writing that I wasn't familiar with on the envelope. I opened the letter and written on a piece of yellow notebook paper, in her own hand writing was a letter from Anna Perrot Rose. She told me how glad she was to hear from me and that since she had written the book she had taken in another orphan child.

Upon my graduation in May I plan to get a summer job and in the fall I plan to enter Montreat College and take a course in Business Education work.

From my story about my life at Barium I hope I have given you some idea of how normal our life at Barium is.
